

Authority, Legitimacy and Epistemic Accounts of Democratic Law:

Estlund vs. Habermas

Epistemic Accounts of Democratic Authority and Legitimacy: Estlund vs. Habermas¹

The Charge of Political Nihilism

8

9

legal

¹⁰ This

11

wherever

all

moral

21

political

is deciding

settled

22

ex post

categories

*ex post*²⁷ ex ante

was nothing that could count as a legitimating procedure

any

without

general acceptability requirement

qualified

The Edinburgh Review

The Discourse Theory and the Challenge of Epistocracy

as a whole

is

!"#$%&'()*+,-./7-

each individual 2 (-)26f)2 ())/TJ ET 0.0001 Tc 430 0 430001 Tc2F141 0 0 41 0 .2 m F30 1 Tf [éc

3.

rational

acceptability

33

34

35

36

everyone

*no alternatives
justified*

necessity

Ethics

self-

they

division of sociomoral labor

5.

5/

